

A Mindfulness Approach to Building Capacity

Dr. Lysette Davi is the Director of Experiential Learning for the W.A. Franke Honors College, primarily fostering a partnerships between the Honors College, the Tucson community and the University of Arizona through hands-on learning experiences for students. She served in the U.S. Peace Corps as a teacher of English. Her research focuses on internationalization, online learning, cultural humility and transnational education models. As a first generation Latina, Lysette uses meditation as a teaching practice in her courses, HNRS 314 and HNRS 295.

Dr. Lysette Davi

Dr. Lysette Davi is the Director of Experiential Learning for the W.A. Franke Honors College, primarily fostering a partnerships between the Honors College, the Tucson community and the University of Arizona through hands-on learning experiences for students. She served in the U.S. Peace Corps as a teacher of English. Her research focuses on internationalization, online learning, cultural humility and transnational education models. As a first generation Latina, Lysette uses meditation as a teaching practice in her courses, HNRS 314 and HNRS 295.

