Student Success Conference 2022 -- Call for Proposals

Purpose: The purpose of the conference is to engage the campus community in a regular discussion of how we teach, guide, and support our students so that they are retained and graduated. We want to work as a community to advance undergraduate persistence and degree completion.

This year, in line with the work of Dr. George Kuh, the focus of the conference is on high-impact practices. We hope our own staff and faculty can share their proven programs and practices that have improved the student experience.
